

WRLC Digital Collections Production Center

Copyright Status

February 24 , 2003

Collection Name: Charles Munroe Papers
Owner/Repository: University Archives, The Gelman Library, The George Washington University.

WRLC requires the owning library to affirm that it has the rights to digitize the material in this collection. In cases where works to be digitized are covered by copyright, the owning library is responsible for obtaining permission to digitize and disseminate the works from the copyright holder. A copy of the permissions document will be provided to WRLC along with the materials.

Please check the appropriate statement below.

To the best of our knowledge all the materials in this collection are in the public domain.

To the best of our knowledge all the materials in this collection are in the public domain with the exception of those on the attached list, for which copyright permission has been obtained (attached copy of permissions document(s)).

The materials in this collection are covered by copyright. Permission has been obtained from the copyright holder(s) (attach copy of permissions document(s))

Signed: _____

Date: _____